

Miss Day has been appointed maid of honor to Miss Lucy Atkinson McIlwaine, of Petersburg, State sponsor for the Sons of Veterans at the Confederate Reunion, May 30th-June 3d. Miss Day is the daughter of Colonel Fenton Day, of Smithfield, and the sister of Mrs. Thomas S. Martin, wife of United States Senator Martin. She has spent several winters with Mrs. Martin in Washington, and has been a popular figure in the best social life of the National Captal. She is equally noted for her charming, personality and the graduances of She is equally noted for her charming personality and the graciousness of September 26th-Mrs. Syelyn Smith King, of Remington, Va. September 27th and 28th-Mrs. R. E. Boykin and Mrs. M. Chalmers, of Smith-field, Va.

September 29th and 20th-Mrs Ti

October 1st and 2d—Mrs. Minnie C. Easley and Mrs. Martin Williams, of Pearlsburg, Va.

October 3rd and 4th-Mrs. L. B. Davies and Mrs. Edward Bowman, of Am-herst Courthouse, Va. October 5th and 6th-Miss Sallie G.

October 5th and 6th—Miss Sallie G.
Shepherd and Mrs. William L. Prince, of Princess Anne Courthouse, Vn.
October 7th and 8th—Miss Louia
Smoot and Mrs. George Simpson, of Alexandria, Va.
October 5th and 10th—Mrs. E. Pendleton Jones and Mrs. Robert Marcus, of Hampton, Va.

ton Jones and Mrs. Robert Marcus, or Hampton, Va. October 11th-Mrs. J. C. Watson, of Abingdon, Va.

October 12th to 14th-Miss Lucy F.
Wise, of Woolsey,

Berkley and Miss Wise, of Woolsey, October 15th and 16th-Miss Mary

Nelson Pendleton, of Lexington, Va. October 17th-Mrs. D. S. Hicks and Miss Elizabeth Derby, of Lawrenceville, Va.

October 18th to 20th-Mrs. Mary Black, Mrs. John S. Apperson, Mrs. William Conner and Mrs. Charles Black, of Blacksburg, Va. October 21st and 22d—Mrs. Sterling

Murray and Mrs. Purcell, of Leesburg,

Smith and Mrs. Anna M. Riddick, of Suffolk, Va. October 28th to 31st and November

E. Lucas and Miss Maggie Sheetz. November 2d and 3d—Miss Alice M. Cowan, of Harrisonburg, Va. November 4th and 5th—Mrs. S. N. Duer and Mrs. James Halsey, of Phila-

November 6th to 10th—Officers of the Virginia Division and officers of the Building Association. The conven-tion of the Virginia Division meets in Norfolk at this time. November 11th and 12th—Mrs. Resa-lind R. Evans, Mr., W. W. McClung, with Mrs. W. P. Morris, as alternate, all of Salem, Va.

all of Salem, Va.

November 13th to 17th—Mrs. James
Y. Leigh, Mrs. Philip E. Yeatman, Mrs.
Washington Taylor, Mrs. Lewis Waiter,
Mrs. W. W. Old, Miss Caroline Waiters,
Miss Margaret Old, Mrs. Henry Rear-Miss Margaret Old, Mrs. Henry Reardon, Miss Nannie Kensett, Mrs. J. R. Hubard, of Norfolk. The general convention, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be in session in Norfolk at this time.

November 18th and 19th—Mrs. W. C. N. Merchant and Miss Bessie Tredway, of Chatham, Va.

November 20th—Mrs. R. P. Page, of Berryville, Va.

November 21st and 22d—Mrs. W. H. Landes, of Staunton, Va.

November 22d and 24th—Mrs. J. C. Curtis and Mrs. W. O. Curtis, of Den-

Curtis and Mrs. W. O. Curtis, of Den-

Church, Va.
November 29th-Representative from the Alleghany Chapter. Novmeber 30th-Mrs. B. T. Gordon, of Lovingston, Va.

Sang for Mme. Sembrich.

A recent issue of the Chattanooga Star, of Tennessee, says:

"Miss Eloise Baylor enjoys the distinction of having had the pleasure and privilege of singing for Mme. Sembrich. On Thursday morning following the concert of the previous evening the great singer received Miss.

evening, the great singer received Miss Baylor in her apartment at the Read House, where she listened with much interest to the several songs rendered by the gifted young Chattanooga girl playing herseif the accompaniment for one number. The praise and encouragement Mme. Sembrich bestowed upon Miss Baylor in behalf of her voice and its possibilities is appreciated by friends of the young lady, and of course it goes without saying that Miss Baylor prizes beyond expression every word, and they will be an incentive to great achievement. Quoting Mme. Sembrich, Miss Baylor is now a coloratura singer, but will doubtevening, the great singer received Miss October 28th to 31st and November 1st—West Virginia Division, U. D. C., Mrs. Virginia Mesherry, president, assisted by Miss Mary Faulkner, Mrs. J. G. McCluer, Miss Kennie Smith, Mrs. Ruth L. Harris, Miss Ethel Ruffner, Mrs. S. S. Green, Mrs. St. George Brooke, Mrs. Lilian Wiles, Mrs. E. D. Talbott, Mrs. L. G. Buffington, Miss Lulu Burks, Mrs. C. W. Asquith, Miss C. W. Washington, Mrs. K. W. Reynolds, Miss Salile Powell, Mrs. W. H. Thomas, Mrs. R. W. Cubbedge, Mrs. C.

Teinach

107 East Broad Street.

RICHMOND'S FOREMOST MILLINERY ESTABLISHMENT

Exquisite Millinery Displayed Here for All Occasions

Everybody will concede that few stores sell such a line of Trimmed Hats. The business we do requires us to carry this immense line, and we are easily justified in saying we are amply repaid. If you want a swell dress hat or smart street hat, and where to find it, the question is easily answered. "Go to Reinach." There'll be no mistake in this assertion. The prices are no higher, as inferior grades and styles shown elsewhere, and the satisfaction in wearing a Reinach hat will satisfy the most Convince yourselves, see other styles, then see these, you'll wear a Reinach hat and no other.

The special display of new models continues every Tuesday of the entire season.

style. She urged the young vocalist not to hesitate, but to press right on, saying, "There may be tears, but they will only make the eyes brighter.' Miss Baylor sang three selections, one of these being, 'Oh, Dry Those Tears,' "Richmond people reading the above will be interested to know that Miss Baylor's mother was Miss Julia Howard, who was born and reared in Richard.

ard, who was born and reared in Rich ard, who was sorn and reared in Rich-mond, and who also had a beautiful voice. Miss Baylor is herself a Vir-ginia girl, having been born at the Miller School in Albemarie county, where her father held a professorship for many years.

Sailed by the Amerika.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Victor Williams whose wedding was a society event of last week in Orange, Va., sailed Thursday by the Hamburg-American lined Amerika, to spend some weeks abroad. Amerika, to spend some weeks abroad. A charmingly planned itinerary will enable them to utilize their time to the best advantage and enjoy a great deal in a comparatively short space of time. Richmond friends will be glad to welcome them home early in the summer, Mr. Williams, who is the namesake son of Mrs. E. Victoria Williams, of No. 20 West Grace Street, having spent his life from boyhood here, and being one of the best-known young men in the of the best-known young men in the

of the best-known young men in the community.

Through her visits to her brother, Mr. Lewis C. Williams, and other Richmond relatives, the bride has also a coterie of acquaintances who are congratulating themselves that her name has been added to the list of Richmond's young matrons.

mond's young matrons.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mrs. Charles M. Catlin and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wade, of Balti-

Final Meeting and Recital.

The final class-meeting of Miss Ef-The final class-meeting of Miss Effice Cofer's music pupils took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in her studio, No. 293 East Franklin Street. The following young ladies took part in a beautiful program of vocal music: Misses Ethel and Lily Trevett, Mary Wright, Elsie Wright, Phaups, Anderson, Shepperson. Davies, Gwathmey, Childrey, Perdue, Tignor, and several of last year's pupils.

of last year's pupils.

Miss Cofer's class will give its final

Miss Cofer's class will give its final recital for the season on Saturday, June 1st, at 5:30 P. M.

Miss Cofer will sail for Europe on June 15th. She will land at Hamburg and will take a leisurely trip through Germany, spending the greater part of the time. in Munich, where she will continue her musical training, and sailing from Cherbourg for home on September 7th.

Benefit Tea.

A silver tea will be given on Thursday from 4 to 7 P. M. in the home of Mrs. John A. Coke, No. 7 West Franklin Street, the proceeds to go to the Commonwealth Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, for their contribution to the D. A. R. house on Jamestown Island.

A very attractive musical program will be given by some of Richmond's best artists, and a number of popular society girls will assist in entertaining.

To Act as Sponsor.

Miss Emma Louise Ehrlich, of Co-lumbia, S. C., will be sponsor for the South Carolina Division, United Con-South Caronia Division, ented Con-federate Veterans, to be held here in May. She will be attended by her maid of honor, Miss Sarah Haynes-worth Lyles, also of Columbia.

Class Recitr!

"The Dancing Lesson".....Lichner
Miss Bessie May Powell. Miss Bessie May Powell.
"Sublime Evening Star"...Wagner-Liszt
Miss Fannie Miller.

Miss Fannie Miler.

NocturneBrassin
Miss Elsie Wright.

Desert Sale.

The Young Ladies' League of Calvary Baptist Church will give a saie of delicious home-made desserts in Sixth Street Market next Saturday. An attractive array of pies, cakes and candy will be on hand, and the young ladies invite their friends to inspect the delicacies.

Enjoyable Evening.

Enjoyable Evening.

A delightful party was given in the home of Miss Elsie V. Fellheimer on the evening of April 24th, by a number of Miss Fellheimer's friends.

The hours were enjoyably spent with games, music and tableaux, under the direction of Mr. Walter Gans.

Those present were Misses Elsie Fellheimer, Lucile Stern, Doris Lippman, Irma Thalheimer, Inez Hutzler, Rena Uliman, Sadie Hellstern and Irma Straus; and Messrs. Aubrey Straus, Edwin Heller, Walter Gans, Edgar Whitlock, Louis Thatheimer, Manly Bottigheimer, William Thalheimer, Raymond Straus and Irving Greentree.

Mr. Gans was congratulated on the success of the affair.

Zeta Tau Alpha Day.

Zeta Tau Alpha Day.

The Zeta Tau Alpha Day,
The Zeta Tau Alpha Day,
The Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority has fixed Wednesday, June 26th, as a day for a pleasant reunion of its members at the Jamestown Exposition. About twenty-five young ladies from Richmond will be in attendance, besides large numbers from other Virginia cities and colleges throughout the South

cities and colleges throughout the South.

Iota Chapter of Richmond College is in charge of the preparations, and the program includes an open session at the Monticello Hotel, Norfolk, in the morning, a sail on Hampton Roads and a visit to the exposition in the afternoon, and a banquet at the Monticello in the evening.

Among the young ladies who expect to attend are the members of the Grand Chapter, including Mrs, Willem Emrys Davis and Mrs, W. T. Bradley, of Jellico, Tenn.; Miss Mary Stuart, of Cleveland, Tenn.; Miss May Agnes Hopkins, of Texas; Miss Grace Jordan, of Forest City, Ark. Some others who are expected to attend are Miss Mary Patrick, of Marion, Ala.; Misses Midred Converse, Jane Kinnier, Chloe Doolittle, of Randolph-Macon Woman's College; Miss Gwendolen Howe, of Lexington, Va.; Misses Anna Rose Cohn and Georgia Miller, of Norfolk; Misses Mary and Ann Urner, Alice Weish, Josephine McLeed, Marguerite and Shirley Manox, Mary Simpson, Helen Baker, Lorena Mason, Isabel Walker, Caroline Holladay, Peachy Harrison, Julia Barnes, Matte Brown, Bertha Knapp, Lizzie Kizer, Mary Hawes Tyler and Mrs. Milledge L. Bonham, Jr., all of Richmond.

Woman's Club.

Woman's Club.

The bridge tournament at the Woman's Club on Friday evening proved a delightful entertainment, ton tables being engaged in the contest. Mrs. B. F. Myers, of Duluth, Minn., and her partner, Mr. Austin Brockenbrough, were the victors, After the game, which was admirably managed by Admiral Webster, an excellent supper was served.

On Monday evening at $130 o'clock.

which was admirably managed by Admiral Webster, an excellent supper was served.

On Monday evening at $330 o'clock, Mr. Gilbert McClurg, of Colorado Springs, will give his unusually attractive lecture, "Panoramic Colorado," at the Y. M. C. A. Hall before the Woman's Club and its guests.

Mr. McClurg shows over two hundred views of the most beautiful parts of that wonderful State, which have been greatly admired all over this country and also abroad. He will be assisted by Mrs. McClurg, who will tell of the Cliff Dwellers, She has made an especial study of all things pertaining to early Indian life, and has become an authority on the subject. Admission will be by card only, each member being entitled to invite two guests. Tickets can be had at the club upon application to the janitress. It is hoped that Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. McClurg will reach Richmond, in time to meet the members at the club on Monday afternoon.

Personal Mention.

Personal Mention.

Miss Louise Cabell Loving left Wednesday evening for Norfolk, where she is the guest of friends. She attende the opening of Jamestown Exposition on Friday. on Friday.

Mrs. George P. Shackleford, who has been undergoing treatment at St. Luke's Hospital for the last five weeks, will be able to return home within the next few days.

Mr. E. T. Lewis, of Danville, Va., was in the city Friday en route to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Hazell have returned from their bridal trip, and their friends will be interested to know that they will be at the Jefferson until their home on Floyd Avenue is com-pleted.

Mrs. S. C. Richardson left yesterday for a visit to Charlottesville, Va.

Miss Katherine Williams, who is the guest of friends in Norfolk, was among those present at a pretty card party given Wednesday by Mrs. Alfred Clay in her cottage at Ocean View, complimentary to her guest, Miss Harris, of Tarrytown, N. Y.

Miss Nellie Talbott has returned to er home near Waynesboro, Va., after a visit of several weeks to friends.

Among those who attended the marriage of Miss S. Annie Hawkins to Mr. Thomas S. Walthall, which took place in Ettrick, Chesterfield county, last Wednesday, were: Miss Davis, Miss Teller, Miss Mary Andrews; Messrs, Edwin and Theodore Walthall and Mr. David Gates, all of Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Morrissett have returned to Davidle after spending a few days in this city to be with Mr. Irving Morrissett, who is ill.

Mrs. M. L. Harris and Miss Alice Dortch have returned to their home in South Hill, Va., after a visit to Rich-. . . .

Miss Victoria Henderson, of Wood-ford, Va., is undergoing treatment in a hospital here.

Mr. M. I. Hessberg is the guest of is daughter, Mrs. Harry S. Hirsch, in Lynchburg. Mrs. Philip Welch, who has been visiting in Washington, D. C., spent has Monday in Richmond on her way to her home in Mineral, Va.

Mrs. M. L. Richardson is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. I. W. Eason, on Red-gate Avenue, Ghent.

Miss Boothe Bland, of Cologne, Va., is visiting here.

Mr. Charles Reckes has returned from South Hill, Va.

Mrs. Roy Speights visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Roberts, in Caroline county.

Mrs. Sallie Courtney, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. O. Hutchinson, at Etna Mills, Va., has returned to Richmond, accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Inez Hutchinson. Miss Hallie Dickinson is the guest of Mrs. T. C. Watkins, Jr., and Mrs. R. W. Lawson, in South Boston, Va. Mrs. William Garnett, of Beulahville. Va., is the guest of her sister. Mrs. James H. Eubank, in this city.

Miss Katherine Lewis, of this city, was a guest at a card party given Thursday by Mrs. Alfred Clay, of Nor-folk, in honor of her friend, Miss Harris, of Tarrytown, N. Y. Miss Mary and Miss Sue Davidson, of Lexington, Va., who are spending some time in Richmond, left Friday for Nor-folk to witness the opening of James-town Exposition. folk to Witness town Exposition.

Mrs. Catlin Davis is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Roach, near Fredericksburg, Va.

Colonel and Mrs. Eugene C. Massie, Colonel and Mrs. Thomas B. McAdams, Colonel and Mrs. J. Scott Parrish, Colonel A. Sidney Buford, Jr., and Colonel W. J. Payne were among the Richmond people attending the reception at the State building on Thursday evening

Mrs. Arista Hoge, Miss Bessie Hoge and Mr. Henry Hoge, of Staunton, are guests of friends in Richmond.

Miss Mary Moulton and Miss Louise Seiden are visiting Miss Helen Stevens, in Richmond, Va.

Mrs. J. Horace Smith, in Salem, Va.

Miss Lottle Wagner is spending sev eral days with her mother in Newport News, Va.

Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson left Thursday to join the Lieutenant-Governor in Norfolk and attend the functions associated with the opening of the Vir-ginia Building and the Jamestown Exposition.

Miss Waddell, of this city, is visiting Mrs. Frederick Palen, in Newport News.

Mrs. Charles Everhart, who is hostess at the North Dakota Building at the Jamestown Exposition Grounds, entertained most pleasantly at the grounds on Tuesday, the members of her bridge club. Cards were played, but not for long, as the dayentertainment partook rather of the nature of an outing, and was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Everhart's guests were Mrs. Alexander, of Connecticut; Mrs. Barrows, Mrs. M. C. Ferobee, Mrs. Edward Spaiding, Miss Hattie Minter, of Portsmouth; Mrs. Martin Greeenwood and Mrs. Frederick Stoll.

Mr. George Brevillier, of New York, who came to Richmond for a short visit, left Wednesday for home by way of Norfolk and the Exposition Grounds.

Mrs. John Tyler, the Misses Tyler and Mrs. William Gray were members of a congenial party spending April 26th at the Jamestown Exposition.

HANOVER.

HANOVER.

ROCKVILLE, VA., April 27.—Miss Florence Dodge closed her school last week and left for her homo, near Ashland, Va., Sunday morning.

Miss. Nellie Cocke, who has been spending some time in Huntington and Parkersburg, W. Va., is expected homethis week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, of Goochland county, visited at Mr. Q. A. Snead's this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Snead entertained quite a number of their friends last Wednesday. Among those present were Misses Nancy and Cardeza Snead, Ola Sims, Bessie Cocke, Ivy, Myrtic, Virgie, Vernon and Alise Wiltshire, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wiltshire, Messrs. J. William Wiltshire and John Julian Snead.

Miss Mattio Mills, of Hylas, Va., and Miss Ola Sims, of Louisa, Va., spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Newton Dabney.

